

Mediation at TAC

Our Mediator

Our Mr Tony Au accepts appointment as Mediator in disputes concerning the following matters:

- Rights and obligations among shareholders of companies
- Private equity and venture capital investments
- Contracts and liabilities of directors and senior officers of companies
- Disputes that involve interlocutory injunctions
- Company share sale agreements
- Information technology contracts
- Media and entertainment industry contracts
- Infringement of Intellectual property and technology
- Transfer and licensing of intellectual property and technology
- Personal injury and other tortious claims
- General commercial contracts and civil disputes

Mediation Facilities at TAC

At TAC's office, we conduct meeting sessions in our meeting rooms with participants in mediation. Each meeting room is equipped with physical and online meeting facilities that enable physical, online and hybrid meeting sessions. Up to 5 meeting rooms (room capacity ranging from 4 to 12 people) are available for simultaneous use for any single mediation for a multi-party dispute at TAC. WIFI, word processing, printing and document disposal support are available to participants without additional charges.
